SACRED HEART COLLEGE, CHALAKUDY DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Report 2020-2021

In the year 2020-21 The Department organised the Add on course on Communication Skills from the month of July to March. Communication Skills is the foundation of language learning from which effective speaking, writing and reading emerge and it is the bedrock of human language learning. One's ability to speak Good English is a proof of competence. No matter how capable an individual may be in his / her studies or profession, it is the use of good communication skills that highlights this strength.

31 students from The Department of English enrolled the course and all students successfully completed the course. The objectives of the course were to enhance the communication skills of the students by learning Grammar, Vocabulary, Phonetics and by practicing Public speaking, Group Discussion, Interviews, Report writing and so on.

Students were taught Basic Writing Skills which covered areas like Punctuation, Commonly Confused words and Basic Grammar. The students were given a few worksheets on these areas and their performance was evaluated and necessary feedback on how to improve these skills was given.

Classes on E mail writing, Report writing, Resume and Effective Profiling were provided and the students were given some useful information on Telephone Etiquettes. In addition to this, they were given some exercises and role play sessions where they were asked to use appropriate language – both formal and informal – while making telephonic conversations.

The students were introduced to the tips and techniques on drafting formal and informal letters and they were asked to work in groups and write out formal letters making use of the tips and following the guide lines given. They were asked to read out the letter drafted by their group and provided suggestions as how the letters could have been made more appropriate and effective.

In general, the students could develop their communication skills to a certain extent by attending the Add on Course.

Regular evaluation and Tests were carried out for assessing the improvement of the students. Written Tests, Oral Tests, group Discussion, Debates were conducted to imbibe the various skill of communication.

Times 2 Hours

It is obvious from the visible garbage around us that solid wastes are not being managed properly. However, housing colonies are the most disorganized sector as far as garbage is concerned. As a result the legal garbage dumps are overflowing and the number of illegal garbage dumps in the by-lanes, parks and roadside is on the increase in most colonies of Delhi, and for that matter in all Indian cities. At present five percent of Delhi's land mass is being choked by the garbage. This five percent has become a wasteland, its utility is steadily declining and soil quality is deteriorating. Besides being eyesores, these garbage dumps pose health and environment hazard for the ten million people who live in Delhi. They are the breeding grounds for the germs of infectious diseases like plague, tuberculosis, dysentery, diarrhoea, eye-infections and numerous skin ailments. Scientific management of garbage thus is one of the most important services that need to be regularized in all residential colonies. After exploring all viable solutions to this problem, I have successfully launched an indigenous scheme "Cleaning Brigade" in many colonies of Delhi. The Cleaning Brigades are managing solid wastes for at least twenty five thousand Delhites. A year and a half back the first cleaning brigade was launched during the Asiad. Since then it has been constantly expanding.

8. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below;

Let's not romanticize terrorism, let's not sentimentalise it. A terrorist is a criminal and like any other criminal, he must be dealt with firmly. Those who argue for a humane and soft approach towards terrorists do not understand the psychology of terror. Like crime which exists at all levels of society, terrorism too permeates all socio-economic sections of society. Our fond belief that terrorism stems from a feeling of alienation, of disenfranchisement, has been belied by the emerging profile of the terrorists behind the Mumbai blasts. True, hardline approach to terrorism may result in greater mutations and intensity of terror in the short-run. But there is no alternative. When asked how he would deal with the terrorists, Mumbai's police chief put it succinctly. He would deal with them merely as the criminals they are, he said. Any 'soft' approach will be taken advantage of by the terrorist and he will up the ante. The terrorists must be made to understand in no uncertain terms that terrorism cannot pay in the long turn. After we negotiated with the Kandahar hijackers and the state caved in, terrorists attacks have intensified. India is seen to be a soft target.

The cost of a tough approach will be greater bloodshed and damage to property, but eventually only this can eradicate the evil of terrorism. If dialogue and reconciliation were viable alternatives, we would not be seeing so many terrorist movements across the world. Even when Israel under an earlier Prime Minister adopted a conciliatory approach to militant groups in the occupied territories, innocent people were still being killed in the country. Today, there is worldwide revulsion in terrorism, triggered off by the 9/11 incident. The international environment is conducive to escalating the drive against terror. Despite criticism from some quarters, it is widely acknowledged that President Bush was right in adopting a tough position on terror. It is India's image as a soft state that has encouraged the kind of attacks we witnessed in Mumbai. When terrorists understand that their tactics will be reciprocated in kind, they will think twice before they strike.

- 1) What is common between 'crime' and 'terrorism'? a) Both of them are against democracy.
- b) Both of them can be found in all the social stratum.
- c) Both of them use violence.
- d) Both of them work against the law of nature.
- 2) If we deal with terrorism sternly-----
- a) The terrorists will surrender quickly.
- b) Terrorist organisations will change its tactics.
- c) Terrorists may react by indulging in violence for a short period.
- d) It will give a message to other nations.
- 3) If we adopt a liberal attitude towards terrorism----- a) Terrorists will only gain from it.
- b) The entire world will support us.
- c) It will send a right message among terrorist outfits.
- d) Negotiation with terrorist organisations would be easy.
- 4) Which of the following is true in context of the passage?
- a) The author supports a soft approach towards terrorists. b)

Terrorism has become a global issue.

- c) Terrorism is a sentimental issue.
- d) Terrorism is more deadly in nature than crime.

 $\{1 \times 4 = 4\}$

9. Attempt any two of the following in 250 words.

- i) Write a review of a book that you have read recently.
- ii) You see a classified advertisement in the newspaper inviting applications for the post of assistant manager in a reputed bank. Write a cover letter with resume to the HDFC Bank, Indira Nagar, New Delhi, applying for the post advertised. You are Arathy of 46, Arathy Nivas, Palm Beach Road, New Delhi.

iii) Write an appreciation of the poem.

The Bangle Sellers

-Sarojini Naidu

Bangle sellers are we who bear Our shining loads to the temple fair... Who will buy these delicate, bright Rainbow-tinted circles of light? Lustrous tokens of radiant lives, For happy daughters and happy wives.

Some are meet for a maiden's wrist, Silver and blue as the mountain mist, Some are flushed like the buds that dream On the tranquil brow of a woodland stream, Some are aglow with the bloom that cleaves To the limpid glory of new born leaves

Some are like fields of sunlit corn, Meet for a bride on her bridal morn, Some, like the flame of her marriage fire, Or, rich with the hue of her heart's desire, Tinkling, luminous, tender, and clear, Like her bridal laughter and bridal tear.

Some are purple and gold flecked grey
For she who has journeyed through life midway,
Whose hands have cherished, whose love has blest,
And cradled fair sons on her faithful breast,
And serves her household in fruitful pride,
And worships the gods at her husband's side.

Human Rights course 2020-21

Human Rights certificate course 2020-21 has been started on 1st July 2020. About 50 students joined in the course. We conducted most of the classes through online platform. With an aim for the students to get familiar with the notion of human rights, the Dept. of Political Science along with the Dept. of History organized this certificate course at college level. Many students especially girls are not aware of their basic human rights. Women are the most vulnerable sections in society.

Therefore, in order to create a thorough awareness regarding human rights, we started this course. Moreover, at the end of the academic year we provided an online certificate for the entire enrolled students of human rights. Without access to basic human rights nobody can lead a dignified life. Human rights protection is an internationally acclaimed concept. Even the United Nations Organisation celebrates Dec 10 every year as world human rights day.
