

Open Course Documentary Series 2020 & 2021

Report of the activities in 2020

Date - September - October 2020

The Department of History offers the Open Course named Heritage Studies for the students as part of their Semester V courses. This course is offered to students from other departments. The course contains studies on different cultural aspects of the nation and the state. Inspired by the theoretical perspectives taught in the course, students are motivated to conduct studies and research on the heritage elements in their nearby and to create a detailed Documentary video to be streamed through the YouTube channel. If the information and knowledge students earned are shared with the public through digital media, it will help in a better understanding of the cultural characteristics of the locality. This Documentary Series is created as part of the extension and outreach initiative of the Department of History through a digital platform. The students have made a great effort in accessing different places and people despite Covid situations. The students can prepare documentaries individually or they can do them as a group activity.

Details - As part of the assignment for the students, they are asked to identify some of the heritage monuments or sites or art forms in their locality. They had to do a short documentary video on the same visiting the site or meeting with the art doyens. Then the students need to send the videos to the faculty. The documentaries were released on the College's Youtube Channel for the public to understand the heritage introduced by the students. This program was conducted to transmit the knowledge and expertise the students have earned as part of their assignment to the public. The views of the documentary videos have reached hundreds of people. The documentaries are released in the months of September and October 2020. Mr. Libin Francis is the faculty in charge of conducting open course classes.

Date of activity - October 2021 onwards.

This year, the Department of History offered the Open Course named Historical Tourism for the students as part of their V Sem course. The course requires the students to have a great deal of awareness among the students regarding the heritage and natural characteristics of different places in India and particularly in Kerala and its local areas. The creation of documentary is a part of the extension activity by the department through digital platform.

The students are asked to visit different places accessible to them and prepare a Documentary on the site. The location coordinates, means of transportation, history of the place and place name, important features of the site etc are described in detail in the video. There were several restrictions to access several places due to Covid pandemic. But students managed to prepare more than 20 documentaries. The students can prepare documentaries individually or they can do as a group activity.

Details- As part of the assignment for the students, they are asked to identify some of the heritage monuments or sites or art forms in their locality. This activity enabled the students to get aware of the social and cultural arenas around them. They had to do a short documentary video on the same and send it to the faculty. The documentaries were released to the College Youtube Channel for the public to understand the heritage introduced by the students. The documentaries are released from the months of September and October 2021.
