COMMUNAL HARMONY WEEK

DATE:19 TO 25 NOVEMBER 2017

DURATION:8 HOURS

In India,Communal harmony week is celebrated from 19th to 25th November.Communal harmony means that people of different religions,casts,sex, and different background live together in the society with love and peace amongst themselves.During this one week celebrations were conducted to instil the feeling of communal harmony, peace and national integrity in the minds of the people. On this communal harmony week,a rally was conducted at the Chalakudy railway station junction, with the students raising slogans of communal oneness. About 100 students participated in the rally. The students created placards , spreading the message of peace and unity in diversity.The volunteers took a pledge on keeping up a broad perspective regarding the matters of communal diversity. Competitions on essay writing, collage, and pencil drawing were conducted for the students. Communal harmony stamps were distributed for the volunteers and pictures on the topic were displayed on the college noticeboard. On December 21st,the college hosted a musical concert of the blind,where the NSS volunteers took the initiative in arranging the auditorium and in organising the programme.
