WORKSHOP ON REAL ANALYSIS

A digital landscape with server racks and binary code. The scene is set in a dark blue environment. In the foreground, a path of glowing binary code (0s and 1s) leads towards the center. On either side of the path are rows of server racks, each with a glowing blue light emanating from its base. The racks recede into the distance, creating a sense of depth. The overall atmosphere is futuristic and technological.

KERALAPIRAVI

CHRISTMAS

S H

An aerial photograph captures a large group of people, likely a school or sports team, standing in a vast, green grassy field. They are arranged in two large, stylized letters: 'S' on the left and 'H' on the right. The 'S' is formed by a continuous line of people, while the 'H' is composed of three distinct vertical lines connected by a horizontal bar. A single person stands in the open space between the two letters. The field is a vibrant green, and the overall scene suggests a group activity or a team-building exercise.
