

INTERCOLLEGIATE POSTER MAKING, QUIZ AND DANCE COMPETITION -

ORGANIZED BY: DEPARTMENT OF ZOOLOGY

Report -

In connection with the retirement of Ms. Jolly Thomas V, Head, Department of Zoology the department conducted an intercollegiate fest called Vezhambal fest on 28th February 2018. The fest was named after Vezhambal – In the local language Malayalam, it is known as 'MalaMuzhakki Vezhambal', meaning 'Hornbill which resounds the hills'. It is a near threatened species of endemic bird found in Kerala. The theme of the event was wildlife and dangers faced by them especially because of anthropogenic activities.

The fest was a mixture of cultural, science and arts with various intercollegiate competitions. This generated a sense of gratitude and respect among the students. It also helped them to work as a team, to develop leadership qualities, to manage time and money.

The students collected the prize money for the event from various shops and business establishments in and around Chalakudy.

The prize money for the quiz competition was Rs.2000 for the first prize which was bagged by Muhammed Bilal P.A and Anjana A of Sacred Heart College, Thevara, Rs.1000 for the 2nd prize which was secured by Arun and Neenu of Christ College, Irinjalakuda and Rs.500 for the third prize was bagged by Seethalaksmi C.S. and Mers Rose Shoby of Sacred Heart College, Chalakudy. Best posters received Rs.1000 and Rs.500 as cash prizes for 1st and 2nd place.

The first prize winners of the dance competition were the team from Sacred Heart College, Chalakudy who received Rs. 7000 as cash prize and the second prize was bagged by a team from St. Joseph's college, Irinjalakuda who received Rs.5000 as cash prize.
