Preamble

WHEREAS, SJC and SHC have many areas of common interest in arts, science and commerce, considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research.

NOW THEREFORE, SJC and SHC have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

Objective

Both Institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

The two institutions shall seek to promote Faculty/Scientist/Staff Exchanges

- The exchange of faculty to the mutual benefit of both institutions,
- Collaboration in teaching, research and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest,
- The exchange of academic materials and publications,
- Conducting lectures,
- Undertaking joint research,
- Attachment of staff for purposes of curriculum development and review, attendance of courses, upgrading of teaching and research skills,
- Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions,
- Co-supervising post-graduate students,
- Conducting study tours and joint consultancy work,
- Collaborative quality initiatives.

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting forth detailed arrangements for collaboration will be agreed. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment or such exchange, will be worked out between the institutes.

Student Exchange

SJC and SHC agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- His/her programme/course of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.

- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- SJC and SHC agree to provide suitable accommodation for student exchange.
- To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

Other Areas:

- to conduct collaborative quality initiatives to improve academic and administrative quality of the institution
- to participate joint academic auditing for institution quality enhancement
- to exchange information on research and educational programs,
- to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs,
- to jointly organize short-term continuing education programs on topics
- of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to organize jointly seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to propose and engage jointly in research or training programs sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research,
- to use laboratory facilities in specific cases for a limited period,
- to permit students, staff and faculty members to use library facility.

SJC and SHC agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be determined separately and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation.

Coordination

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching/research faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of SJC, and a programme coordinator from the side of SHC, will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

Ownership of any intellectual property (including but not limited to confidential information, know-how, patents, copyrights, design rights, rights relating to computer software, and any other industrial or intellectual property rights) developed jointly during the course of this MOU shall be vested in both institutes to this Memorandum.

Validity

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of Two years commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of Three months in advance to the other institution. Once terminated, neither SJC and SHC will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, SJC and SHC will ensure that the provisions of this Memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes. Participating faculties, staff and students involved in any activities under this Memorandum must adhere to the law of the host countries and rules and regulations of the institutions. Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any legal relationship between the institutes. This Memorandum is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration. In case, there be a dispute relating to any aspect of academic cooperation, Principal, SJC and SHC will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect, and shared responsibility.

SJC and SHC welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

The aforesaid institutions are hereinafter referred to individually as institution and collectively as institutions.

Preamble

WHEREAS, CCI and SHC have many areas of common interest in arts, science and commerce, considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research.

THEREFORE, CCI and SHC have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

Objective

Both Institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

The two institutions shall seek to promote Faculty/Scientist/Staff Exchanges.

- The exchange of faculty to the mutual benefit of both institutions,
- Collaboration in teaching, research and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest,
- The exchange of academic materials and publications,
- Conducting lectures,
- Undertaking joint research,
- Attachment of staff for purposes of curriculum development and review, attendance of courses, upgrading of teaching and research skills,
- Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions,
- Co-supervising post-graduate students,
- Conducting study tours and joint consultancy work.

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting forth detailed arrangements for collaboration will be agreed. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment or such exchange, will be worked out between the institutes.

Student Exchange

CCI and SHC agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution, where a student is a full time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- His/her programme/course of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.

Validity

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of Five years commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of three months in advance to the other institution. Once terminated, neither CCI nor SHC will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, CCI and SHC will ensure that the provisions of this Memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes. Participating faculties, staff and students involved in any activities under this Memorandum must adhere to the law of the host countries and rules and regulations of the institutions. Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any legal relationship between the institutes. This Memorandum is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration. In case, there be a dispute relating to any aspect of academic cooperation, Principal, CCI and SHC will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect, and shared responsibility.

CCI and SHC welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

Introduction

College found that teachers can perform well in teaching as well as research, if they interact closely with neighbouring colleges. Hence under the MoU, three activities conducted during the academic year 2021-22.

Activities conducted:

1. Dr.Sr.Reena Ittyachan, Associate Professor, Dept. of Physics sanctioned research guideship from Calicut University at the Christ College research department of Physics and Ms.Vidya K Soman joined for research under Dr.Sr.Reena Ittyachan as per order no.177398/RESEARCH-B-ASST-2/2021/Admn dated 02/12/2021.
2. Two-Week Interdisciplinary Online Faculty Development Program on "Structural Analysis Using Rietveld Refinement, Microscopic and Compositional Analysis" during 29 September-13 October 2021, under the collaboration of 5 colleges in India.
3. Dr.Nijo Varghese, Head, Department of Physics, Sacred Heart College, Chalakudy as resource person, conducted a "sky watching night" with an 8 inch astronomical telescope on 23rd December 2021, Thursday from 5.00p.m. to 8.30p.m. The program started with an talk on "An Introduction to star gazing".

Whereas

c) Framing the vision of women empowerment, and for the successful upbringing of a vibrant social assemblage, a necessity for women education was identified. The birth of Little Flower ensued on 1st July 1955 at Mammiyoor in the pilgrim town Guryvayoor, realizing the worthiness of higher education by the management and the social circle. The profound reverie of the wider horizon of imagination and perspective paved way for the dawn of Little Flower College, instituted on 1st July 1955. The institution is situated at the south of Malabar, a reserved area of the district of Thrissur in sync with the districts of Malappuram and Palaghat. The institution started off with affiliation to the University of Madras later to the University of Kerala, after the formation of its home state. The institution is now affiliated to the University of Calicut and is one of the foremost women's colleges of nearly four hundred affiliated member colleges.

d) LFC is desirous to associate with SHC on various areas as discussed in the Purview of this MoU, which will be mutually beneficial to both organizations.

That, relying on the principle of good faith, by virtue of which they will carry out all the possible actions for their due fulfillment,

And relying also on their common bonds and concerns, they state their interest in strengthening their relationships through academic cooperation, and for this end they are of one accord in entering this MoU.

NOW THEREFORE THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING WITNESSESAS FOLLOWS

1. OBJECTIVE:

e) The parties agree that the objective of the present MoU is to establish a cooperation program in order to collaborate towards the formation of students, academics and researchers for the promotion and development of their respective areas of interest.

on 1st July, 1952. It was the sacred mission of Mother Veronica the foundress of the congregation to train young women who had embraced religious life and send them far and wide on vocations of service to the community. Providence Women's College was the result of the efforts of such a committed group, headed by Mother Gabrielle, who became the Founder Principal. This was a dream come true for the young women in the Malabar region who had to otherwise go as far as Mangalore or Madras in search of a women's college. Thus this college opened a new chapter in the annals of Malabar, as its first women's college. The college is registered under the Apostolic Carmel Education Society, S No.4 of 1957, Calicut. The Managing Governing Body includes the Provincial Superior, Educational Secretary, the Principal, the Local Manager, a representative of the management and a religious staff nominated by the Provincial Superior.
